LEVEL UP

#54

STATIONERY HAUL!

Hello everyone!

In this episode of Walk 'n' Talk Level Up you learned new vocabulary and new expressions! Now you can continue studying, by checking out the dialogue, the expressions with written explanations, and by repeating all the sentences!

DIALOGUE

Olive: I'm so freaking excited!

James: Do tell!

Olive: I just ordered my planner for next year!

James: Already? We're barely into November.

Olive: Yeah, but you've got to plan for these things.

James: If you say so.

Olive. I do! You've got to pick the model, the color, the design, the thickness of the paper...

James: Uh huh.

Olive: And then there are the writing materials! Pens, pencils, markers... Roller ball or felt tip, permanent or erasable... The possibilities are endless! I'm glad I got a head start.

NEW EXPRESSIONS!

Freaking

It's an informal word that can be used both as an adverb and an adjective. It can be used to express annoyance or emphasize something.

I'm going out of my freaking mind.

That book is my favorite. It's so freaking good.

Do tell

An informal phrase used to express surprise about something. This expression does not necessarily ask the speaker to provide more details but merely expresses one's astonishment. It expresses surprise or interest. A synonym of "you don't say".

James got engaged? Do tell.

Someone is getting a promotion? Do tell.

If you say so

A phrase used when you're not convinced a statement is true or correct. It means you'll take the speaker's word for it but would prefer verification. It can also mean you don't believe the person, but won't push further.

Are you ok?

Yes.

If you say so...

Head start

It means an advantage given or acquired in any competition, endeavor, etc., as allowing one or more competitors in a race to start before the others.

I have experience in the field, so I have a head start on the job offering.
A good education gives your child a head start in life.
